I am a determined learner with a creative mindset and a never-give-up attitude. I try to be very positive and enthusiastic about whatever it is I'm doing, so I tend to do very well in fast-paced environments when there's a new technology to learn. Most importantly, I get most excited about projects and teams that give me an opportunity to make a difference through my creativity and adaptability

PROJECTS

Verdecer (github.com/PriheaParmar/Verdecer)

Jan'2024- PRESENT

Developed Verdecer during my second year of college, aiming to raise awareness about environmental issues and promote sustainable living. It was a website that contains some valuable resources and information on eco-friendly practices, encouraging visitors to become more 'green.' It also had interactive elements, such as quizzes and forums, to engage users and foster a community focused on environmental conservation.

24Carrots (github.com/PriheaParmar/24Carrots)

Sep'2023- Dec'2023

Revamped the website for the catering company 24 Carrots, focusing on a modern and creative redesign. Updated the layout, colors, and visuals on the site to make it look fresh. Optimized existing content for better readability and added new sections to improve user experience. Added interactive elements such as sliders, galleries, and contact forms to engage visitors and make the site more dynamic. The revamped website now presents a more user-friendly interface, making it easier for customers to explore the services and offerings of 24Carrots
